DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by admitted prior art (figs. 7-9).

Admitted prior art (figs. 7-9) discloses a structure for preventing failure of connector comprising a first sub-connector (50), a second sub-connector (60), comprising an openable and closable cap (52) provided at the front end portion, a cap lock provided (53) provided on a connector housing (51) of the first connector for preventing a turning of the cap when the first sub-connector is not fitted into the second the second sub-connector, a disengagement mechanism provided on one end of the first and the second sub-connectors (50, 60) for disengaging the second sub-connector from first sub-connector in the case that a force acts in the disengagement direction and preventing connection failure.

In regard to claims 2-3, admitted prior art discloses the aforementioned limitations including the strain relief groove provided on the cap (53) serving as fitting lock for locking the second connector, a cap lock shaft or pin (56) with support portion of the cap lock with relief groove provided on the support.
